The debut novel of Kristin Gore (daughter of Al and, perhaps more significantly, former Harvard Lampoon staffer and ex-Futurama writer), Sammy's Hill could best be described as Primary Colors meets Sex and the City, with a little Bridget Jones sprinkled in for good measure. Vice-presidential daughter and first-time novelist Gore can be presumed to know the lay of the land. Here, the eponymous Sammy (née Samantha) Joyce, daffy in a sorority-cutup sort of way, has cast her lot with virtuous Ohio junior Senator Robert Gary, slightly grizzled, right (that is to say, left)-thinking father of two-year-old twins. Domestic policy advisor Sammy shares a flat with a ...
